1. Candace Katungi:

As reported by Candace Katungi:

"Good afternoon everyone,

I am coming to you on behalf of the Ethnic Studies Faculty Council at Mesa. I want to bring to your attention that there are widespread concerns about the CSU-Review Process for the new CSU GE-Breath - Area F Ethnic Studies Requirement. The current process has led to denials of longstanding Ethnic Studies classes in our District and State. We are actively involved in conversations with Ethnic Studies colleagues and Articulation Officers on ways to address this issue through the ASCCC.

We will be sharing updates and asking for your support soon.

Thank you,
Candace"

- Mesa Pathways Committee (MPC): Co-Coordinator Marisa Alioto
As reported by Marisa Alioto:
"Mesa Pathways Retreat:
On Thursday, August 11th, Mesa Pathways hosted an in-person retreat at the College of Continuing Education - North City campus from 9am-3pm. The retreat was facilitated by Dr. Al Solano, and over 30 Mesa College faculty, administrators, classified professionals, and students participated in various activities centered in campus culture, change and inclusive leadership. The afternoon portion allowed our workgroups and project teams to work together to complete a gap analysis and action planning with a focus on strategies to move their Pathways work forward in this upcoming year. We are in the process of transcribing all of the work that was completed in this substantive retreat, and look forward to sharing the details with the Mesa community.

Student Success Teams:

The Student Success Team project team core members met regularly this past summer to plan for and launch an SST pilot this fall. Many forms and tracking tools have been developed, as well as a Canvas Shell for SST members to keep track of campus resources. The pilot team includes a Faculty Lead (Ian Duckles), a Data Coach (Gina Abbate), a counselor (Gabriel Adona), a Student Services/Equity Coach (Pahua Vang), and an Administrator (Leslie Shimazaki).

The team identified 57 students for a pilot group, as well as a similar cohort to serve as a control. Students in the pilot group will receive targeted communications and interventions from the SST, and students in the control group will not. Students in the pilot group received their first communication on 8/17/22 to introduce them to the team, and to encourage students to enroll full-time, including a recommendation to enroll in the appropriate ENGL + MATH courses.

This project team will continue to meet throughout the semester to monitor and/or modify their communication and intervention plan, and will be providing updates to MPC throughout the semester. Special thanks to the project team leads: Ian Duckles, Gina Abbate and Pahua Vang, as well as the pilot team, for their efforts to successfully launch this pilot.

Data Coaches:

The Data Coaches will begin its semester long training program beginning September 8th. The cohort consists of faculty, classified professionals, and administration members. The goal of the program is to build a sustainable practice of data-informed decision-making within the campus community. Data coaching is meant to unite administrators, professors, and classified professionals to act in response to disparities in equity. We are proud to support the launch of this program. Thank you to the project leads Gina Abbate and Anda McComb for their leadership on this project and to project assistant Stephanie Oldengram and the rest of the Data Coaches project team for the great work on this project.

Academic & Career Pathways (ACPs):

We are pleased to share that our Academic & Career Pathways (ACP) icons and descriptions are now posted on the Mesa Pathways website, and work continues in the marketing of our ACPs to the greater campus community: <https://www.sdmesa.edu/mesa-pathways/acp-icons-descriptions.shtml>

We will be promoting our ACPs during Club Rush, September 20-22th from 11am-1pm on Sunrise Plaza. Faculty, including counselors, our Pathways Fellows, and Career Ambassadors will be present to talk about our ACPs, and provide information, giveaways and swag to students. We hope to see you that week!

Call for Members: Pathways Workgroups and Project Teams: If you are interested in becoming involved in a Pathways workgroup or project team, please reach out to MesaPathways@sdccd.edu.

Next MPC Meeting: Our next MPC Meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 14th from 12:45 - 2:15 pm (future meeting format TBD, but meetings are currently held online via Zoom)

- Senator at Large (2): Vacant
- President: John Crocitti

As reported by John Crocitti:

"I showed the SDCCD 2021-2022 Second Principal TCR and Revenue Sources, making the following comments:

1. I pointed out that the highest of three Total Computational Revenue (TCR) options for the 2024-2025 year will serve as new base for Hold Harmless in subsequent years. After 2024-2025, COLA will not be compounded for Hold Harmless.
2. I showed how the Student Centered Funding Formula (SCFF) Calculated Revenue (A) was arrived at.
 - a. Emphasized that the Emergency Conditions Allowance (ECA) compensated for a District loss of approximately 4600 FTES. ECA is not the same as Hold Harmless. State Chancellor's Office wanted to end the ECA, but instead continued it with strings attached that include SDCCD participation in state online consortium. This is problematic since we must accept online units even if we don't want to offer certain courses as DE at Mesa. However, refusing the ECA would mean a loss of $18 million dollars for SDCCD.
 - b. I also pointed out that, in the Basic Allocation portion of the SCFF, City and Miramar Colleges have currently fallen into the small-college category, which will cause a further loss of $800,000+ if the Basic Allocation is recalculated. District targets for City and Miramar remain less than 10,000 FTES, which puts them in small-college category.
3. I explained the 2020-2021 SCFF Calculated Revenue + COLA (B) as the second option.
4. I explained the current Hold Harmless (C), as the third option. It is based on TCR of 2017-2018 plus COLA compounded in subsequent years until the new model starts in 2025-2025.
 - a. Option (C) has been the highest in recent years. In my opinion, it will remain the highest option in the new base year, 2024-2025 and, therefore, will serve as the new base for the modified Hold Harmless starting in 2024-2025.
Executive Vice Chancellor Bonnie Dowd believes that SDCCD can make option (A) the highest.

- b. SDCCD believes that it can compensate for reduced FTES by hitting the Success and Allocation milestones that are part of the SCFF. I commented that tying funding to student success can lead to grade inflation, as occurred in K-12 with No Child Left Behind.
- 5. I urged faculty to start thinking about the TCF and potential downsizing of SDCCD after years of growth.
- 6. I answered Andrew Hoffman's question about local K-12 population by pointing out that it has been in steady decline since 2001."

X. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Investigative Committee – May 2, 2022 Senate Executive Committee Incident:

- 1. President John Crocitti, Vice President Sakeenah Gallardo and Past Academic Affairs Committee Chair Oscar V. Torres worked as the Investigative Committee over the summer.
- a. The Investigative Committee asked Mesa College Cultural Competency Series Facilitator Dr. Tanis Stark from the SDSU School of Education to create a course that would help Andrew Hoffman understand the possible negative impact of the comment he made on other members of the Mesa College community.
 - Dr. Stark graciously reduced her fee for the four-week course from $4,000.00 to $1,000.00 after we informed her that $4,000.00 is approximately the same as the current balance of the Mesa College Academic Senate bank accounts and our membership dues fund our Mesa College Student Scholarships.
 - * President Elect Andrew Hoffman graciously volunteered to pay the entire $1,000.00 fee by increasing his monthly Academic Senate dues to $100.00 for 10 months.
 - * President Elect Andrew Hoffman will provide a report to the Senate after he completes his course.

Resolution 2022.9.1: ASSERTING CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE (CCC) FACULTY PRIMACY OVER COURSES PROPOSED FOR CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY GENERAL EDUCATION BREADTH (CSUGE-B) ETHNIC STUDIES AREA F INCLUSION: Articulation Officer Juliette Parker

Move:

Second:

Whereas, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) is empowered by AB 1725 (Vasconcellos, 1988), "to assume primary responsibility for making recommendations in areas of curriculum and academic standards" to governing boards of community college districts, reinforced by Title 5 § 53200 Definitions and Title 5 § 55002 Standards and Criteria for the Course Outline of Record.

Whereas, The California State University Chancellor's Office (CSUCO) denied the inclusion of CCC courses submitted for CSUGE-Breadth Area F Ethnic Studies consideration that did not include Area F core competency language verbatim in the Course Outline of Record (COR) Course Objectives, which is a "requirement" that was never published or shared during any of the Area F submission information sessions;¹

Whereas, The California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office (CCCCO) grossly misrepresents CSUGE-Breadth published policy in the Ethnic Studies Course Certification for CSU GE Breadth Area F memorandum to Chief Executive Officers, Chief Instructional Officers, Chief Student Services Officers, Academic Senate Presidents, Ethnic Studies Faculty, Articulation Officers and Curriculum Chairs dated and released via email June 29, 2022;²

Whereas, AB 1725 has been upheld during previous California State University (CSU) and University of California (UC) campus demands for verbatim language in the COR involving non-Ethnic Studies disciplines;

Resolved, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) assert under AB 1725 and Title 5 § 53200 and Title 5 § 55002, that the content contained in the course outline of record, including its course objectives, is firmly within CCC faculty purview.

Resolved, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) insist that the California State University Chancellor's Office (CSUCO) immediately cease and desist from denying CCC course proposals for Area F inclusion based solely on the lack of "verbatim" core competency language in the COR, and adhere to CSUGE-B Requirements policy, as well as the law, policies and procedures which govern CCC curriculum.

Presented to the Academic Senate: September 26, 2022

Approved by the Academic Senate:

¹The California Community Colleges that attended the CSUCO Office Hours Q & A for CSUGE-B Ethnic Studies Area F course submission held Wednesday, January 20, 2021, and Friday, January 22, 2021, were instructed not to copy and paste core competency language verbatim into the course outline of record (COR).

² CSUGE-B Requirements indicates "Courses that are approved to meet this requirement shall meet at least 3 of the 5 the following core competencies." However, the CCCCCO June 29, 2022, memorandum ESS 22-300-011 titled Ethnic Studies Course Certification for CSU GE Breadth Area F under the header Guidance for Effective Ethnic Studies Course Approval indicates "The ethnic studies core competencies (at least 3 of 5) must be listed (verbatim) within the Course Outline of Record (COR) as stated in CSU GE Breadth Policy."

Resolution 2022.9.2 - ESTABLISH AN EQUITABLE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY GENERAL EDUCATION BREADTH (CSUGE-B) ETHNIC STUDIES AREA F REVIEW PROCESS: Articulation Officer Juliette Parker

Move:

Second:

Whereas, AB1460 (Weber, 2020) required the California State University (CSU) to institute, "as an undergraduate graduation requirement, the completion of, at minimum, one 3-unit course in ethnic studies, as specified"¹;

Whereas, California Community Colleges (CCC) are the custodians of the CSUGE-B pattern and annually submit course proposals to the CSU Chancellor's Office (CSUCO) for Ethnic Studies Area F inclusion, a requirement students can fulfill by completing a 3-unit course;

Whereas, The implementation of AB 1460 by the CSUCO resulted in a significantly flawed CSUGE-B Ethnic Studies Area F review process with inconsistent guidelines, the lack of properly trained competent reviewers from each of the four disciplines which make up Ethnic Studies, and inconsistent decision-making;

Whereas, Numerous approvals and denials of CCC courses proposed for Ethnic Studies Area F inclusion occurred in direct violation of the law, policies and procedures which govern CCC curriculum. In addition, the Community College Chancellor's Office (CCCCO) grossly misrepresents CSUGE-B Ethnic Studies Area F published policy in a June 29, 2022, memorandum²;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) partner with the California State University Chancellor's Office (CSUCO), California Community College Ethnic Studies Faculty Council (CCCEFC), and the CSU Ethnic Studies Taskforce to work toward establishing a well-structured, equitable Ethnic Studies Area F review process with integrity, appropriate guidelines, timelines, and qualified reviewers from the CSU and CCC in each of the four Ethnic Studies disciplines.

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) partner with the California State University Chancellor's Office and the California Community Colleges Ethnic Studies Faculty Council (CCCESFC) to facilitate Ethnic Studies Area F reviewer training to ensure the appropriate awareness of and adherence to the law, policies and procedures which govern CCC curriculum are applied during the Ethnic Studies Area F review process.

Presented to the Academic Senate: September 26, 2022

Approved by the Academic Senate:

¹"Ethnic Studies are an interdisciplinary and comparative study of race and ethnicity with special focus on four historically defined racialized core groups: Native Americans, African Americans, Asian Americans, and Latina and Latino Americans."

² CSUGE-B Requirements indicates "Courses that are approved to meet this requirement shall meet at least 3 of the 5 the following core competencies." However, the CCCCCO June 29, 2022, memorandum ESS 22-300-011 titled Ethnic Studies Course Certification for CSU GE Breadth Area F under the header Guidance for Effective Ethnic Studies Course Approval indicates "The ethnic studies core competencies (at least 3 of 5) must be listed (verbatim) within the Course Outline of Record (COR) as stated in CSU GE Breadth Policy."

Resolution 2022.9.3: Retain Option for Students to Take Lifelong Learning and Self-Development as a Lower Division Course: Articulation Officer Juliette Parker

Move:

Second:

Whereas, The proposed CalGETC resulting from steps to implementation of AB 928 (Berman, 2021) would eliminate the California State University General Education-Breadth (CSUGE-B) Area E Lifelong Learning and Self-Development;

Whereas, The California State University has indicated that Lifelong Learning and Self-Development area would become an upper-division graduation requirement;

Whereas, Lifelong Learning and Self-Development historically and is currently designated as a CSUGE-Breadth Area E requirement to be fulfilled at the lower-division level of study¹; and

Whereas, California Community College (CCC) students benefit by taking Lifelong Learning and Self-Development courses at the beginning of their higher education journey²;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the California State University (CSU) to retain the option for students to complete the CSU Lifelong Learning and Self-Development requirement with a lower division course.

Presented to the Academic Senate: September 26, 2022

Approved by the Academic Senate:

² For example, students have the opportunity to learn the expectations of higher education, how to maintain and strengthen their mental and physical health, which is especially important in our current global condition. Completion of such courses may be crucial to the success of many CCC transfer students, some of whom otherwise would not achieve their academic goals.

Resolution 2022.9.4 – Information Technology Updates Needed for Mesa College Classrooms and Faculty Offices and Adherence to the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) Requirements: Academic Senate
President John Crocitti

Move:

Second:

Whereas, effective classroom instruction depends on fully functional computer podiums capable of using current software and reliably connected to peripheral devices such as but not limited to digital projectors and speakers, microphones, document cameras and laptop computers;

Whereas, to prepare for teaching face-top-face classes, to conduct remote synchronous teaching, to develop asynchronous online courses and to participate in remote committee meetings, tenured/tenure track faculty and adjunct instructors need office and workplace computers capable of using current software and applications;

Whereas, Articles 5.3 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) stipulates that SDCCD provide adjunct faculty workplaces with computers with internet and District network access; Article 6.2.8 of the CBA stipulates that SDCCD provide tenure and tenure-track faculty members with a computer that meets current District standards for new equipment; and Article 6.5.2 of the CBA stipulates that SDCCD provide audio-visual equipment and media;

Whereas, many classroom podium arrays are no longer current or in need of repair, thereby impairing effective classroom instruction, while many tenure/tenure-track faculty offices and adjunct workplaces have computers that are no longer current, thereby impairing preparation for teaching, remote synchronous teaching and participation in committee meetings;

Resolved, that the District and the four colleges audit classroom and office/workspace technology to determine which computers and associated peripheral devices are no longer current or in full operating condition;

Resolved, that SDCCD expedite replacement and/or repair of computers and associated peripheral devices that are no longer current or in full operating condition according to the aforementioned audit.

Resolution 2022.9.5 – Auto Enrollment: Counselor Anthony Reuss

Move:

Second:

Whereas Mesa College is “the leading college of excellence and equity” and

Whereas current practices for adding courses after the start of the semester are inequitable and create barriers to both access and enrollment.

Whereas the current system of emailing professors is antiquated and inefficient, and takes away from instruction during the first two weeks.

Whereas our colleges want and need enrollment.

Be it resolved, as early as spring 2023, we urge immediate implementation of an auto-enrollment (traditional add/drop) period on a first come, first served basis until the class is full without the need for instructor approval and during which permission numbers (add codes) will not be distributed

Examples for discussion:

Equity:

Students most able to obtain a permission number are continuing students, students who are attending or have graduated from a university, and those with other forms of privilege.

Students come to us from all walks of life and make the decision to attend college at different times. Many students who are the first in their families to attend college do not know how to navigate this process.

The current process creates only one access point for registration after the start of a class and students need multiple access points in order to achieve equity.

Antiquated and Inefficient:

Email is not the dominant form of communication for students today.

Campus Solutions shows the classes are open and students are confused about the process for adding a course.

Students must make multiple contacts with both Students Services and Instruction in navigating this process; including wasting valuable time simply trying to find out how to contact the professor.

Professors are often inundated with requests even when their courses are full and often are unavailable (i.e. not on campus or in their offices during that time-period).

Professors may or may not read or reply to the students’ requests in a timely manner or due to the volume of emails, may respond to emails out of the order received.

Professors may or may not know how to issue or use permission numbers.

Enrollment:

Waitlists close at the start of the semester, but registration remains open.

Students must email professors in order to receive permission to add a course, but the contact information for professors is not readily available and students cannot access the Canvas shell until enrolled, putting them behind in their classes.

Students give up and decide not to take classes, when they could have been auto-enrolled.

Professors would still be able to direct students to their portal after the start of the class to initiate this process and/or provide permission numbers after the class is full.

PROPOSAL EVIDENCE:

Any Disciplines List proposal must have the following evidence, which is essential because it provides the rationale about why the change is needed as well as inform the field that the research has been completed to ensure that the change is necessary. A lack of documentation about the need of Discipline List Revision may cause the proposal to be delayed or rejected by the Executive Committee. Please use the following check list to ensure all you have conducted all necessary research.

Required investigation of the following and statement of findings:

(X) Contacted an associated professional organization to determine support of proposal

Letters of support have been requested and are forthcoming from the California Community College Ethnic Studies Faculty Council, and the CSU Ethnic Studies Faculty Council.

(X) Included evidence of degrees within the proposed revision of the discipline or new discipline.

Evidence comes from the ASCCC discipline list itself where all four core autonomous discipline areas are included in the Minimum Qualifications for Faculty and Administrators in California Community Colleges Handbook. These include: African American Studies, Chicano Studies, and now Asian American Studies and Native American/American Indian Studies.

The Minimum Qualifications in each of the autonomous 4 core disciplines refers to a Master's degree in each of the autonomous disciplines or includes Ethnic Studies. See below:

Master's degree in African-American/Black/Africana Studies OR Bachelor's degree in African-American/Black/Africana Studies AND master's degree in Ethnic Studies OR the equivalent

Master's degree in Native American/American Indian studies OR a master's in ethnic studies and bachelor's degree in Native American/American Indian studies OR the equivalent

(X) Provided a list of the titles of the degrees and programs to document the need for a new or revised discipline using the below criteria:

- Minimum of three degrees
- Regionally accredited institutions (all public institutions in California)
- Disciplines in the Master's List requires evidence of the availability of masters degrees

Existing degrees in the ASCCC Discipline Minimum Qualifications Handbook include African American Studies and Chicano Studies. Two new disciplines were added to the disciplines list in the spring of 2022 at the ASCCC Plenary, which include: Asian American Studies and Native American/American Indian Studies. This change to the category of Ethnic Studies is being submitted for accuracy and consistency to be in alignment with all four disciplines that make up Ethnic Studies.

(X) Provided statewide need documented by evidence to show a change is necessary and not merely a response to a unique need of one college, district or region. Demonstrated a balance of need across the state and included a discipline second from another district.

- 1) Increases in Ethnic Studies degree programs at every level of higher education (i.e., Associate, Bachelors, Master's and Terminal Degree programs and certification) throughout the state, as outlined in Appendix A, contribute to the need for a contemporary update to the Ethnic Studies Minimum Qualifications listing which has not been updated for over 30 years.
- 2) Due to the passage of AB1460, and subsequent changes to CCC Title 5, now require all students in higher education to successfully complete one Ethnic Studies 3 unit course graduation requirement from any one of the four core autonomous disciplines: Native American Studies, African American Studies, Asian American Studies, and Latina and Latino American Studies including Ethnic Studies.
- 3) This has resulted in an increased demand for new departments, courses and faculty throughout the state that are qualified Ethnic Studies experts from each of the four core autonomous disciplines; Native American Studies, African American Studies, Asian American Studies, and Latina and Latino American Studies including Ethnic Studies.
- 4) Lastly, changes in the Ethnic Studies minimum qualifications are warranted to be in alignment with the newly established MQ's of all four core autonomous disciplines that make up the category of Ethnic Studies and which also brings needed clarity about whom is qualified to teach within these four core autonomous disciplines within the CCC system.

(X) Explained the impact of proposal across the state using a list the pro and con arguments and including refutation of the con arguments The impact of making changes to the ASCCC Minimum Qualifications include but are not limited to the following:

Pros

- 1) This clarity will help facilitate the continued growth and advancement of authentic Ethnic Studies disciplines and faculty which have historically been denied and marginalized within the academe. As CCC Ethnic Studies departments in all four core autonomous disciplines continue to emerge within the state, there is a need as with any discipline, to ensure that new faculty are qualified as experts and duly trained and grounded within the culturally centered theories, methodologies and frameworks of Ethnic Studies scholarship.
- 2) This is an effort to "correct" the initial "compromise" of the collective term, Ethnic Studies, understood as a category of reference when collectively referring to all four core autonomous disciplines of African American Studies, Latina/o Chicana/o Studies, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies that emerged within the academe over 50 years ago. These changes bring everything into alignment and make sure the list is accurate and consistent.

Cons

- 1) There is a misperception within the academe that changes to the Ethnic Studies Minimum Qualifications focusing only upon the four core: African American Studies, Latina/o and Chicana/o Studies, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies will limit the number of available 'qualified' faculty to teach Ethnic Studies courses.
- 2) There is a misunderstanding of the interdisciplinary nature of the four core disciplines within Ethnic Studies. Updating the Ethnic Studies minimum qualifications clarifies the critical distinction between the culturally grounded interdisciplinarity within the autonomous four core Ethnic Studies disciplines from the defined category of Interdisciplinary Studies.

Refutation

The goal of this proposal is to bring correction and clarity to the educational training necessary to teach Ethnic Studies by rectifying the list of the autonomous four core disciplines (African American Studies, Latina/o Chicana/o, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies) that make up Ethnic Studies and removing other (non-Ethnic Studies) degrees (Central American Studies, Latin American Studies, Cross Cultural Studies, Race and Ethnic Relations) who do not adequately prepare CCC faculty members to teach Ethnic Studies from the existing minimum qualifications list because these degrees do not have a grounding in any of the four autonomous core disciplines, nor do they provide the training necessary in the culturally centered theories, methodologies and frameworks of Ethnic Studies scholarship.

- 1) The passage of AB 1460 is clear. It defines Ethnic Studies as consisting of only four core autonomous disciplines. This was followed by the 2021 ASCCC's adoption of resolution 09.07 calling for Ethnic Studies to be added to Title 5 as a CCC graduation requirement. Ethnic Studies began at San Francisco State in 1968 as only four core autonomous disciplines consisting of African American Studies, Latina/o Chicana/o, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies. Within the last 50 years, Ethnic Studies departments and programs have emerged on some campuses as comparative study which are specifically within the four core areas, African American Studies, Latina/o Chicana/o, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies. Changes to the Ethnic Studies Minimum Qualifications to the four core will bring Ethnic Studies qualifications into alignment with the current and will be more accurate. Local equivalency processes would still be allowed, therefore changes to the minimum qualifications would not be exclusive.

- 2) Removal of the “Interdisciplinary” option from the Ethnic Studies category will prohibit non-qualified faculty, who do not have appropriate training and cultural grounding within any of the four core autonomous disciplines of Ethnic Studies: African American Studies, Latina/o Chicana/o, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies from teaching Ethnic Studies courses.

SUMMATION

It is necessary to prevent the colonization of Ethnic Studies curriculum and requirements which have in the past (at various higher education levels) had conditional standing in the academe providing loopholes that allowed students to fulfill an Ethnic Studies requirement without ever having to complete an Ethnic Studies class. Current efforts to frame Ethnic Studies as one discipline vs. the retention of its original definition as an identifier and collective categorical term for the autonomous four core disciplines that make up Ethnic Studies, are part of an attempt to redefine Ethnic Studies and the colonization of its curriculum within the academe. This proposal then is a correction to the 50 years of conditional standing and marginalization of Ethnic Studies since its admission to the academe in 1968.

Xenophobia (fear of change and differences) in the American society and the academe, has more recently been recognized as contributing historically to the foundation and perpetuation of the system structural and institutional racism and white supremacy. Failure to address these historic inequities have served as a catalyst contributing to a lack of cultural competence which contemporarily has manifested in the recent racial and health pandemic of 2020, impacting the globe. This lack of cultural competence in all social, educational, and business sectors has been a mitigating factor in the death of the unheard such as George Floyd and countless others, and the unprecedented global protests in the red summer of 2020, which fueled calls for change and justice that were echoed from all around the world.

As such, we are now in a state of racial and educational reckoning that requires us as committed educators to take responsibility for preventing history from repeating itself as evidenced by the health and racial pandemic of 1919, the Red Summers of 1943, 1963, 2020, etc. Remembered by Dr. Martin Luther King as “...we have got to see that a riot is the language of the unheard.”

(X) Provided other evidence such as significant changes to the field that requires a change to the Disciplines List.

There are three major changes that directly impact the field of Ethnic Studies and the need to ensure qualified expertise among practitioners.

- 1) The passage of AB 1460 in 2020, represents a new legislative mandate to complete one 3-unit Ethnic Studies course as a CSU graduation requirement. This has a direct impact upon California Community Colleges that provide CSU and UC transfer courses which are now being reviewed and approved to meet the CSU Area F Ethnic Studies requirement as well as the newly adopted IGETC Area 7, UC Ethnic Studies graduation requirement. This paradigm shift greatly increases not only the demand for qualified experts in Ethnic Studies, but also will have a significant impact on the growth of the four core autonomous disciplines in the field of Ethnic Studies to meet the demand of 100,000 graduates each year from both the CSU and the CCC higher education systems.

- 2) The changes arising from AB 1460 were influential in promoting changes to Title 5 within the California Community College system which also adopted Ethnic Studies as a graduation requirement.
- 3) Lastly, Ethnic Studies is also a high school graduation requirement within the state. Thus, a viable pathway to meet the need for accurate decolonized curriculum, appropriate service learning and teacher training, certificate programs and professional development can be met by California Community College Ethnic Studies courses and programs.

(X) Provide a ½ page written rationale to be included in public documents.

This proposal to revise the Ethnic Studies Minimum Qualifications 1) corrects the disciplines list by including the two disciplines Asian American Studies and Native American/American Indian Studies that were missing from the autonomous four core disciplines and 2) removes disciplines that are currently listed within the Ethnic Studies minimum qualifications that do not adequately train faculty to teach Ethnic Studies.

- 1) In the ASCCC Discipline Handbook, the current criteria for Ethnic Studies is antiquated for several reasons because:
 - a) Asian American Studies and Native American/American Indian Studies were recently added as new disciplines in Spring 2022 and both reference Ethnic Studies as a qualifier and therefore warrant updates to the Ethnic Studies Minimum Qualifications;
 - b) degrees, programs, scholarship, and contributions to the literature in the autonomous four core fields of Ethnic Studies (African American/ Black/Africana Studies, Latina/o/ Chicana/o Studies, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies) have had significant advances particularly over the last 40 plus years within their 50 year adoption in the academe. As such, these advancements warrant an update to the Ethnic Studies minimum qualifications based upon the most recent standards of each autonomous four core discipline.
- 2) Over the last 50 years the field of Ethnic Studies has evolved and expanded tremendously as evidenced by the listing of degrees within all four core autonomous disciplines of Ethnic Studies that are currently available at all degree levels within the academe (Associate, Bachelor, Masters, Terminal).

- 3) The development and the passing of AB 1460 outlines Ethnic Studies as a graduation requirement for the CSU system which indirectly affects community colleges who offer transferable courses that are currently being approved to meet Area F completion. Therefore, AB 1460 also gave impetus to adopting an Ethnic Studies graduation requirement for California Community Colleges within Title 5 (ASCCC Resolution 09.07). This then becomes another motivating factor for clarifying Minimum Qualifications under the field of Ethnic Studies.
- 4) Experts holding Masters and/or terminal degrees in the field of Ethnic Studies with specialization and/or concentration in one or more (usually two) of the four core disciplines (African American/ Black/Africana Studies, Latina/o/Chicana/o Studies, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies) will meet the minimum qualifications for the category of Ethnic Studies.
- 5) Equivalency must demonstrate proficiency in and as outlined by the scholarship that include identifying culturally centered theories and praxes, methodologies and frameworks within the four core autonomous disciplines; and professional affiliations, etc.

*Note - Ethnic Studies is a categorical term used to describe the four core autonomous disciplines of African American/ Black/Africana Studies, Latina/o/Chicana/o Studies, Asian American Studies, and Native American/American Indian Studies. Ethnic Studies as a collective term of reference emerging on some campuses as the collection of and in some instances as a comparison of all four core autonomous disciplines within one institutional department. The four core autonomous disciplines are the heart of Ethnic Studies and as such must be the center of the minimum qualifications outlining who is qualified to teach Ethnic Studies.

SUBMISSION

Once a proposal is received by the Senate Office, it is reviewed by staff to ensure that all the information is complete and includes the revision, contact information, appropriate signatures and rationale. The Senate Office will also check to ensure that the proposal has not previously been considered and rejected by the delegates at a plenary session or, if it has, it is supported by a new rationale. The proposal is then sent to the S&P Chair to review the Senate Office information and to ensure that the proposal meets the initial requirements of the Disciplines List review process as well as to verify that the proposal is not being submitted to deal with a district-specific problem that does not apply broadly. If there are any concerns with the proposal, the S&P Chair, working with the S&P Committee, will immediately follow up with the initiator.

The contact person (or a designee) will be required to attend hearings where the proposal is presented. These hearings are typically held at the ASCCC plenary sessions. It should be noted that the contact person is responsible for investigating and documenting the need for changes to the Discipline List.

Please reference the Disciplines List Handbook for information about the process including the role of the initiator, the Standards and Practices Committee, the Executive Committee, and the delegates. This handbook can be found on our website at <http://asccc.org/disciplines-list>.
