  - ii. OPTION A) The "1789 Description of a Slave Ship" was instrumental in abolishing slavery in England. In 1862, when President Abraham Lincoln met Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of the anti-slavery novel, Uncle Tom's Cabin, he reportedly said, "So this is the little lady who made this big war [The Civil War]." In the 1930's, when university students heard Jazz musician Dizzy Gillespie, they were inspired to go to law school and write legislation against racial segregation. Here, in our own city of San Diego, in 1973, a group of Chicano muralists began the transformation of Chicano Park. Now, home to 72 murals, the park is a celebration of Latino life and culture.
  - iii. OPTION B) Art has always been a vehicle to drive social justice. Thus, the San Diego Mesa College Fine and Performing Arts Committee invites you to join us during our Left Meets Right: Art & Community Lecture Series for Spring 2021. The artists will discuss ways in which art demonstrate patterns of truths about the current conditions of our world, and how art contributes to the reconciliation and restoration of our humanity.
