College Implementation Tracker

- Indicates colleges' completion of the benchmarks for the Emergency Conditions Athe Emergency Conditions Allowance Memo (FS 22-07) benchmarks), distributed by the Chancellor's Office on June 14, 2022. The college/district meets the conditions pertaining to the CVC if it:

  - ✓ is a member of the CVC-OEI Consortium and has signed the Master Consortium Agreement.

  - ✓ by the beginning of the first term that starts on or after January 01, 2023, has implemented the steps to become a Home College and has implemented or committed to

    - ▪ enabling Course Finder API

    - ▪ completing the steps needed to become Teaching College ready, and

   - ▪ joining a scheduled implementation cohort to become a Teaching College.

College Implementation Tracker (cont'd.)

- ✓ Join the CVC-OEI Consortium: Sign the Master Consortium Agreement and email that document to support@cvc.edu.

- ✓ Become a Home College on the CVC Exchange: This means that a college has completed the technical steps to allow its students to take cross-enrollable courses at Teaching Colleges on the CVC Exchange.

- ✓ Federal Financial Aid Consortium Agreement: Once signed, your college's students can request federal financial aid and combine units across colleges

- ✓ Enable the Course Finder API: Will ensure that colleges have their live seat counts reflected on the CVC Exchange.

- ✓ Become "Teaching College Ready": The additional steps needed for districts to become Teaching College ready (meaning being ready for Teaching College technical integration) are: (a) enabling sending of e-transcripts through eTranscript California and (b) enabling Super Glue with the CCC Technology Center.

Search Filter

1. TO HAVE COURSES LISTED ON THE CVC ONLINE COURSE FINDER, COLLEGES MUST HAVE COMPLETED PHASE 1: LIVE SCHEDULE INTEGRATION (SDCCD IS ALMOST DONE)

2. THE STATED INTENTION OF THE CVC EXCHANGE IS TO PROVIDE A PLATFORM FOR STUDENTS TO CROSS-ENROLL IN COURSES AT CCCS.

3. CVC IS PILOTING A DEFAULT SEARCH FILTER THAT WILL SHOW STUDENTS ONLY CROSS-ENROLLABLE COURSES (I.E. COURSES AT TEACHING COLLEGES).

4. BADGES BEFORE - CONSORTIUM COLLEGE, QUALITY REVIEWED, ONLINE TUTORING, ONLINE COUNSELING, ONLINE STUDENT READINESS, ZERO TEXTBOOK COST (ZTC).

5. BADGES SHIFTING IN 2023 - QUALITY REVIEWED, ONLINE TUTORING, ZERO TEXTBOOK COST (ZTC).

Updates

Some topics need to be decided at the local college level, such as the clearing of prerequisites.

Educational Services is finalizing the payment piece, so all payments are through CVC OEI.

Communications

Websites

The primary goal is to build the infrastructure that shows we are in compliance with the Emergency Conditions Allowance requirements and to demonstrate that SDCCD is making an effort to fully implement.

Welcome letter to students is being finalized.

Susan and Jess are working on a communication letter to students and to faculty that will be distributed by January 26.

Faculty website with a FAQ will be created by Brian Weston

Student website will be created by Susan, Jess, and Carol

Educational Services will provide each of the colleges with the faculty and student website links so they can be included on the college websites.

Updates

Meeting on a weekly basis with CVC OEI Team

Almost completed phase one of the project

Asked for an extension due to challenges with programming

Asked for one month from March 29 to April 29

Working on creating a website for faculty and staff that can be added to our websites and will be housed by the district

Two letters, one to go out to students and one for faculty that has links to all the pages and will go out closer to the launch date

Still have issues with students not being enrolled in the home campus and able to enroll for CVC OEI courses

Victor's Updates

End user testing to start

Need to know who clears the prerequisites

Students will upload the unofficial transcripts

Someone at the college needs to determine that

Victor will work with the designee and train them

Will need a login to the CVC exchange

Brian's Updates

- Looking to test the search match

- Double check for duplicates

- First name, last name, and DOB, we will not do their CCC ID initially

- They will be provisioned an sdccd.edu email address

- How do we handle the accommodations? Is it handled by the home college or transmitted to the district

- Reaching out around March, early April, late March

- They will have a CVC service indicator

- Can only add and drop classes from CVC

- Admissions, FA, and Counseling will have access to service indicators

- They will have a hold because they won't be able to apply for financial aid at the teaching college because they have a home college where they can apply

- Add and drop needs to be done through CVC and not CS

- Refund needs to be manually done

Brian's Updates

- Connecting Canvas Integration

- When students entering home college login, when they click on the tile in the exchange, it will load the teaching campus' hub

- When students login to Canvas, they just click on the tile for the class

- Concerns about proctoring

- Badges appear on the search

- Our SDCCD students taking classes regardless of whether they are through the exchange or not

- 100% online, after open enrollment

- Students can enroll

- Right places, right prerequisites showing up

- 8,000 students have gone through the exchange

Others

- Testing started
- Communication will go out mid-March
- Will give DGC a heads up
- Will align with summer and fall registrations
- POCR Aligned, hoping to be done by the end of the semester to get a badge
- 2 courses limit on the exchange
- At least 1 credit at the home college
- 6 units at the home college to receive FA

DATE

Dear SDCCD Community,

San Diego City, Mesa, and Miramar Colleges are becoming California Virtual College (CVC) Exchange Teaching Colleges. This transition increases students' access to higher education statewide by streamlining the registration process for our online classes, ultimately bolstering enrollment figures.

A dedicated cross-functional team, comprised of CVC leads from San Diego City, Mesa, and Miramar Colleges, along with District Educational Services and IT, has been hard at work for several months to make this transition possible. With the final implementation and testing phases underway, City, Mesa, and Miramar Colleges are scheduled to go live as a Teaching College on April 29, 2024.

Here's what you need to know as we approach this milestone:

- Courses labeled as Zero Textbook Cost (ZTC) in our class schedule will be prominently badged by the Exchange. These classes receive priority placement in the CVC search algorithm and tend to fill up quickly. For guidance on incorporating Open Educational Resources (OER) and achieving ZTC status for your course, visit the OER Faculty Resource Course.
- Late-start or short-term classes are particularly popular for cross-enrollment.
- Students across the state seek courses in all subjects. The only courses that are visible on the exchange are the courses that are fully online and do not have an "in-person" component.
- To ensure that our students have priority, students enrolling through the exchange may only enroll during open enrollment.

For more information, please refer to the CVC Exchange Faculty FAQs page,. Additionally, a student FAQs page is available to assist students with any inquiries they may have..

Thank you for your support to all the students we have the privilege of serving.
