

WE ARE Mesa Latinx Heritage MONTH 2022

Latinx Bienvenida

📅 Thursday, Sept. 15th ⌚ 11:00 am - 12:30 pm ● Rm: 14-202/ AVANZA Center

Celebrating Latinx students and colegas at Mesa College.
Join us en comunidad for a meet and greet! Meet people from across campus and learn about resources available. Everyone is welcome!
Contact: Leticia Diaz | Email: ldiaz@sdccd.edu

¿Qué servicios están disponibles en San Diego Mesa College?

📅 Monday, Sept. 19th ⌚ 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM ● Rm: 14-202/ AVANZA Center

Presentación será en español. Aprende sobre los servicios disponibles en San Diego Mesa College.
Contact: Karla Trutna | Email: ktrutna@sdccd.edu and
Pavel Consuegra | Email: consuegra@sdccd.edu

FREE Immigration Legal Services Information Session

📅 Wednesday, Sept. 21st ⌚ 10:00 am - 11:00am ▶ ZOOM ID: 82179827661

San Diego Mesa College and Jewish Family Services (JFS) partnered to provide services through its Higher Education Legal Services (HELS) program. The HELS program is a unique opportunity to access personalized immigration legal services. Funds are also available to cover DACA Application fees.

Contact: Angel Aguilar Garcia | Email: aaguilar003@sdccd.edu

Mesa College Library Presents: Latinx Heritage Month Resource Guide

📅 Tuesday, Sept. 27th ⌚ 2:00 pm ▶ <https://bit.ly/DrEdeama>

This information resource event is geared towards promoting access to campus and community information resources to celebrate the heritage, culture, and contributions of Latinx Americans to the United States. Join us as we present our Latinx Heritage Lib-guide and connect you with our wealth of resources and services in Mesa College Library. We will also have a book display of Latinx Heritage Books at the first floor of the LRC.

Contact: Dr. Edeama Onwuchekwa | Email: eonwuchekwa@sdccd.edu

In Lak'ech: Tú eres mi otro yo Maria de Los Angeles and Ryan Bonilla Exhibition Reception

📅 Wednesday, Sept. 28th ⌚ 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm ● Art Gallery, FA-103

Reception for the exhibition of Maria de Los Angeles featuring her paintings, drawings and wearable dress sculptures. She questions the idea of "American citizenship," and explores stereotypes of the immigrant community. Her vibrant, layered works, reflect on displacement, identity, otherness and her experiences as a Mexican immigrant.

Contact: Alessandra Moctezuma | Email: amoctezu@sdccd.edu

In Lak'ech: Tú eres mi otro yo Conversation with artist Maria de Los Angeles

📅 Thursday, Sept. 29th ⌚ 10:00 am - 11:00 am ● Art Gallery, FA-103

Conversation with artist Maria de Los Angeles, her paintings, drawings and wearable dress sculptures question the idea of "American citizenship," and explore stereotypes of the immigrant community. Her vibrant, layered works, reflect on displacement, identity, otherness and her experiences as a Mexican immigrant.

Contact: Alessandra Moctezuma | Email: amoctezu@sdccd.edu

Chismesito Time: Latine Fem in Higher Education

📅 Tuesday, Oct. 4th ⌚ 1:00 pm ● Rm: 14-202/ AVANZA Center

A Spanglish information session catered to any Latinx Fem identifying student. In this workshop, we will talk about campus resources, the Latine experience in Higher Education, as well as creating "community" on campus.

Contact: Daniela Perez Padilla | Email: dperez@sdccd.edu

¡Queer Astrology Lotería!

📅 Wednesday, Oct. 5th ⌚ 12:30 pm - 1:30pm ● Rm: 14-202/ AVANZA Center

Join us and center your sun, moon, and rising signs as you play Astrology Lotería!
All Zodiac Signs are welcome!
Contact: Lucio Lira | Email: llira@sdccd.edu

Rompiendo Barreras Latinx students and professionals share their passion for STEM careers.

📅 Thursday, Oct. 6th ⌚ 10:00 am - 11:00am ● G-102

STEM Core team is pleased to present a panel featuring Latinx students and professionals sharing a common passion for STEM careers. This event aims to support minority students pursuing STEM fields and careers by providing a space to reflect on how to navigate barriers, knowing when to reach out for help in the journey to succeed, and networking.

Contact: Patricia Rodriguez | Email: prodiguez001@sdccd.edu

How to Start a Small Business

📅 Thursday, Oct. 6th ⌚ 3:00 pm - 4:00 pm ▶ ZOOM ID: 8967315143

The workshop covers the important aspects of running a successful business and what it takes in terms of permits, licenses, marketing etc.

Contact: Eduardo Landeros | Email: elanderos@sdccd.edu

September 15 - October 15, 2022 SAN DIEGO MESA COLLEGE