- * MSC B. Craft/M. Fritch to rescind the December 4, 2008 approval of JOUR 101 and JOUR 101 Distance Learning and return the proposal to the originator.
- * The CurricUNET Steering Committee had no report.
- * Y. Bergland reported program SLOs will be included in the 2009-2010 catalog. J. Parker commented departments will be contacted with a request to remove sister college courses from their programs for the 2010-2011 catalog as more programs are becoming college specific.
- * J. Parker reported the CRC approved JAPN 101, 102, 201 and 202 courses will be walked-in for approval by CIC on March 26 to meet an April articulation deadline.
- * The Curriculum Coordinator/Tech Review committee had no report.
- * J. Crocitti reported Mesa is hosting the regional SLOs conference on March 20, 2009. W. Craft commented Mesa is moving forward in the correct direction on implementing SLOs and including them in the 2009-2010 catalog will be beneficial for accreditation.
- * There was no report on Basic Skills.
- * The CIC action summaries for February 26 and March 12 were distributed.
- * M. Fritch requested a clarification of student catalog rights. S. Newell informed the committee evaluators are currently working on a clarification.
