Welcome/Announcements

There were no announcements.

Minutes/Agenda

- * MSC L. Horsman/J. Ellis to approve the agenda for March 1, 2012.
- * MSC L. Horsman/L. Norvell to approve the minutes of February 16, 2012.

Information

- * M. Parsons reminded the committee of the remaining three CRC meetings left in this semester. The optional March 29 meeting will be reviewed again at the March 15 meeting to decide if it is needed.
- * The February 24 workshop was well attended and a number of proposals will be coming to CRC for approval. M. Parsons commented on her inability to be there and thanked E. Norvell, C. Robertson and A. Svedberg for their participation. CRC member participation is highly recommended as the workshops help everyone to become more familiar with CurricUNET inputting and doing Tech Review of proposals. The next CRC Tech Review workshop will be on Friday, March 16, 2012 beginning at 11am in LRC 229. The final workshop of the year will be on April 13, 2012.
- * M. Parsons informed members of two upcoming events: the State Academic Senate Spring Plenary and the Curriculum Institute. Both will be in San Francisco with the Plenary being held April 19-21, 2012 with an April 5 registration. The Curriculum Institute is being held July 12-13, 2012 with a June 13 registration. Anyone interested in attending one or both of these events should contact M. Parsons and/or T. McGrath via email. S. Flor commented she would be interested in attending and will send an email.
